

CLIFF KELLEY, Chicago radio talk show host and political commentator, will speak and lead audience discussion following the film.

“AfterMath: Unanswered Questions from 9/11”

challenges the “official” version of the story. Presented in an engaging hip-hop format, the film addresses:

- The negligence of military officials in their reaction to the hijackings.
- Proven links between the hijackers, Pakistani intelligence and the CIA.
- The role of oil in the conflict.
- The impact of post-9/11 legislation (the PATRIOT Act) on American civil liberties.

Cliff Kelley is a popular talk show host on radio stations WVON-AM and “V103”-FM. He brings a wealth of knowledge of local, national and international affairs to his audience. A native Chicagoan and attorney, Kelley has been active in Chicago’s political arena for more than 30 years, including 16 years on the Chicago City Council. He makes many guest appearances on issue-oriented programs and is a frequent contributor to WTTW’s “Chicago Tonight.” His travels extensive include trips to the Middle East, Asia, Europe and Africa.
